Post Graduate-Program in Risk & General Insurance

Nurturing talent for the General Insurance industry

An insurance company plays a very important role in consumer's lives and in society at large. Increasing income levels, asset creation and health risks associated with lifestyle changes entail a greater need for protection for the consumer which may not be acknowledged by the customers entirely. Also with a vast population being uninsured, the general insurance industry is expected to support economic growth and development in the years to come.

At ICICI Lombard, we believe that in this evolving environment, prudent risk management and deep understanding of risk would be critical in capitalizing on the growth opportunities.

Hence, the endeavour is to continuously work towards building deep domain knowledge and risk management expertise amongst the insurance professionals. We are committed to invest and nurture high calibre specialists who can prudently manage risks, create innovative customer-centric solutions and service the customers with knowledge and passion.

Post Graduate- Program in Risk & General Insurance (PG-PRGI) is one of the steps taken in our journey towards nurturing talent for the general insurance industry. It is the first course of its kind to be launched in India, specifically focused on building a talent pool of specialists and general insurance experts for the industry. A unique and rigorous course co-designed and delivered by The Institute of Insurance and Risk Management (IIRM) and ICICI Lombard, it is an ideal blend of intensive curriculum with industry contextualization.
